

Seed Survivor Crossword Puzzle

Many people work in agriculture careers that require that they know what seeds need to survive, grow and thrive. Here are just a few of those agriculture careers:

Farmer

Crop Services Salesperson

Agronomist
(Also known as a Crop Doctor or Soil Scientist)

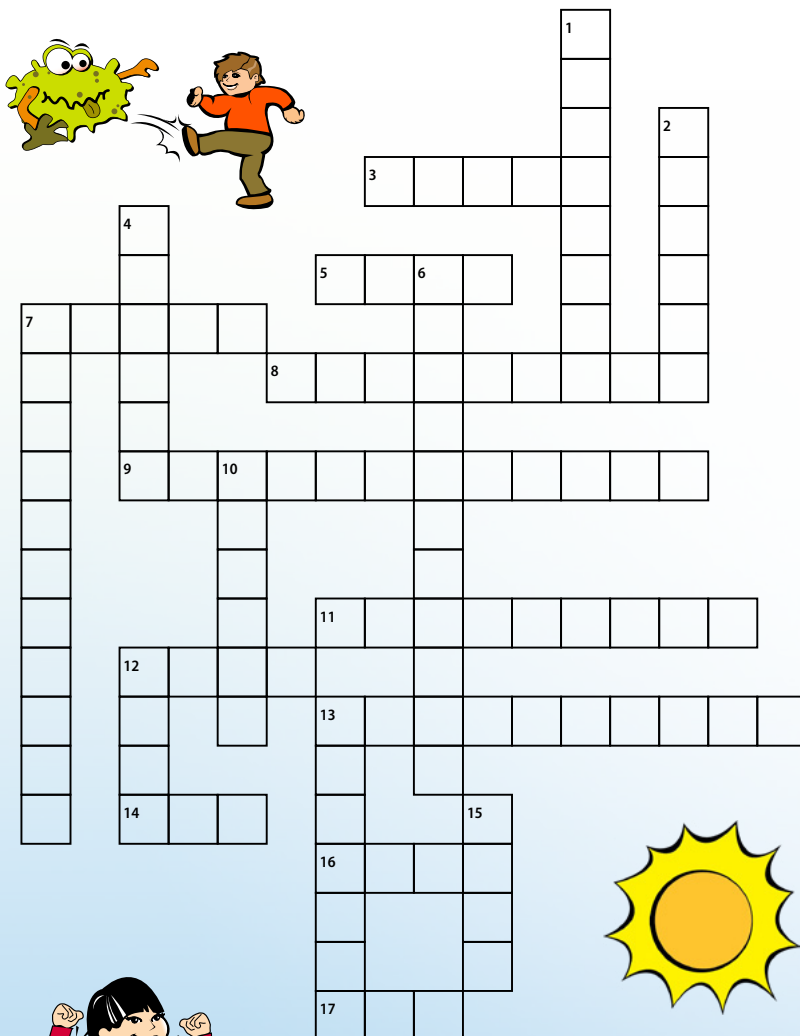

Potash Mine Operator

Botanist

Complete this crossword to test your knowledge of what seeds need to survive, grow and thrive.

ACROSS:

3. Too much of this and your plant might drown.
5. What is the ideal soil for growing crops called?
7. To grow healthy plants, farmers follow the 4R's when applying nutrients. Applying the right source (N,P,K) and the right rate, at the right time and in the right _____ in the field.
8. Plants need 17 of these, including the main ones, N, P, and K to grow.
9. The Canadian province where most of the world's potash (potassium chloride) is mined?
11. What nutrient protects the plant against disease?
12. What is the largest soil particle called?
13. Nutrients come from manure, compost, organic sources and _____
14. What percent of the earth's land is ideal for growing food?
16. To grow, plants need sun/air, water, nutrients and healthy _____
17. Where do plants get their energy from?

DOWN:

1. Which nutrient comes from the air?
2. Potassium comes from evaporated _____
4. What makes the oxygen we need to breathe?
6. 1 in 8 Canadian and 1 in 7 American jobs are in _____
7. Which nutrient helps the plant grab energy from the sun for photosynthesis?
10. Nitrogen keeps a plant green, healthy, and _____
12. What is the medium-sized soil particle called?
13. Phosphorus comes from ancient _____
15. What is the smallest soil particle called?